

A PAINTING WORKSHOP WITH ARTIST Geraldine O'Riordan

Since pursuing a full time career in painting in the early 2000s Geraldine O'Riordan has been awarded two bursaries from Cork Co. Council at Ballinglen Foundation and the Tyrone Guthrie Centre at Annamakerrig. She has had seven solo exhibitions from which her paintings have entered collections such as, University College Cork, Irish Georgian Society, Ballinglen Foundation and the private collections such as Lady Dunraven, Ballymaloe House and Richard Wood. Her paintings have also travelled to collections in the UK, Hong Kong, Germany, USA and Italy.

Geraldine has taught at the Burren College of Art Summer School and has given Decorative Painting Skills demonstrations for the Irish Georgian Society. She currently teaches Decorative Arts at the Cork Training Centre.

In 2019, Geraldines' work was exhibited at the Royal Ulster Academy Annual Exhibition and one of her paintings was purchased by the Tyrone Guthrie Centre. In 2018 Geraldine was selected to exhibit the 'Royal Hibernian Academy Annual Exhibition'.

The Glenville Park workshop will be based on a 'Still Life' from collected items in the house. Geraldine will begin with a demonstration using acrylic paints. Participants will then work on their own paintings under Geraldine's guidance.

A materials list will be forwarded on subscribing for the workshop. Participants are asked bring their own materials.

GLENVILLE PARK, COUNTY CORK, SATURDAY, 28 SEPTEMBER, 2019
9.00AM TO 3.30 PM

DAY WORKSHOP OPTION: INCLUDES LUNCH €75
RESIDENTIAL OPTION INCLUDES :WORKSHOP DAY, DINNER, BED AND BREAKFAST) €200

BOOKING ENQUIRIES: silviabencejones@hotmail.com, 0868453539